The successful tenderer should bind himself to abide by the following conditions:—

The successful tenderer will be required to execute an agreement and deposit a sum of Rs. 150 as security for the due fulfilment of the contract.

Withdrawal from the quotation after it is accepted or failure to make the supply within the specified time or according to specification will entail cancellation of the order and purchases being made at your expense from other sources in addition to the levy of a penalty of 3 per cent of the value of the order as and by way of liquidated damages. In such an event, the Stores Purchase Committee reserve the right to remove your name from the list of approved firms.

The quantity shown against each item is only approximate and the Stores Purchase Committee reserve the right either to order more or less. The initial order will be at least for one-third of the quantities indicated.

The successful tenderer should agree to supply, at the rates specified in his tender, all the materials ordered up to six months from the date of receipt of our initial order.

The successful tenderer should comply with all orders placed during this period, normally within the time specified in the individual order, but in no case shall this time be extended beyond one week from the due date of order unless specially agreed to.

The materials should conform to the specifications detailed in the order. If they do not, and if they are found to be damaged or defective, they will be rejected and returned to the successful tenderer at his cost and the replacement will have to be made within a week from the date of rejection.

If the tenderer fails to supply the materials within the time specified, the Stores Purchase Committee reserve the right to cancel the order and purchase the goods ordered in the open market and any extra cost paid will be debited to the account of defaulting firm.

No claim for any rise in prices will be considered during the period of contract.
